

Training Workshop on Integrated Flood Management for the Nile Basin Countries

23-27 Nov. 2009, Nairobi, Kenya

Capacity Building Needs in IFM

By NBCBN
(Nile Basin Capacity Building Network)

27 November 2009

Q1. what is the existing FM/IFM capacity in your country in terms of:

- a) Institutional capacity
- b) Professional capacity

Q2. what are the gaps in the application of IFM different aspects on national level? (State the most urgent)

- Technical aspects
- Social aspects (stakeholders involvement)
- Economic aspects
- Legal aspects
- environmental aspects

Q3. what are the different needed IFM capacity building activities in your country?

Q4. In order to create a regional capacity building network for IFM in the Nile basin;

In your country what are the institutions that could be linked to form IFM local action group?

Q5. In your opinion what are the institutions that could be linked to form the IFM local action group in your country?

- To implement similar TOT training activities on IFM
- To implement specialized training on some specific aspect of IFM
- Disseminate IFM concepts through meetings and workshops

Q6. Having formed your local action IFM group;

What are the needed actions to start with in order to promote and strengthen IFM concepts within involved institutions in your country?

Q7. In your opinion what are the actions that should be taken by WMO in collaboration with NBCBN as one of its partners to implement your proposed activities?

1.

2.

3.